

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

The English students of Mrs. F. A. Hinckley gave her a delightful surprise last Saturday evening. At eight o'clock the two sections of English, invaded Mrs. Hinckley's home and surrounded their retiring teacher. Unique and clever games were planned for the evening which was entered into with much enthusiasm. Delicious refreshments were served. During the evening the students presented Mrs. Hinckley with a very handsome stein and bread and butter plate beautifully monogrammed with B. Y. C. The party in all its appointments was a delightful success.

Mrs. Luther M. Howell entertained at dinner in honor of Misses Maud and Edith Showell Wednesday evening.

President and Mrs. J. A. Widsoe entertained Sunday at dinner in honor of Bishop Spalding. The trustees of the college and some invited guests were present.

On Monday a dinner was given at the Woman's building at the A. C. for the trustees and their escorts.

On Wednesday evening the fourth year class entertained the faculty and their escorts with a banquet and ball at the B. Y. C. A color scheme of purple and white, the class color, was carried out in the delicious menu and in the decorations. The library, where the banquet was served, was tastefully decorated with purple and white lilacs. The gymnasium was decorated with the class and college colors and "old glory." The party was one of the delightful affairs of the season.
